New York, October 18.—Duliness and irregularlity were the dominating features of the operations on the stock sexchange to-day. Revival of recent unsettlement on the foreign exchanges was a contributing factor. There was no liquidation of our stocks abroad, but London's level of prices at the close showed a number of very material, declines, especially in Canadian Pacific, the copper and American Smelting. The feature here at the opening was the heavy offerings of Amalgamated Copper. Early weakness was shown also by Union Pacific and a few other issues of speculative importance, but the market turned strong at midday on urgant buying of United States Steel, which so-red its best price of the week. This movement impelled short covering in this general list, after which the market ment impelled short covering in the general list, after which the market lapsed into extreme dullness, except for spasmodic advances in specialties, chiefly the tobaccos

Manipulation was evident in some

Manipulation was evident in some of the more obscure stocks, including fertilizers and equipments. Forecasts point to d moderate cash gain by local banks, and a further contraction of loans is extremely Bonds moved uncertainly, with recessions in some of the more specu-lative issues. Total sales, par value, aggregated $1,450,000. U. S. bonis unchanged on call.

place in April, 1913, but since the University of North Carolina could not send out a team at that time it was impossible to get a date for the tri-angular debate, and the meeting in Lynchburg was arranged instead.

It is expected that a large number of contestants will enter the preliminary contests for places on the team which will represent Washington and Lee. Only three members of previous debating teams—Paul Converse. John T. Gray and M. S. Delaplaine—are now in college, but several new men have signified their intention of trying for the team.
